Wednesday, May 30. 1722.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord William Pawlet one of their Representatives in Parliament, accompanied by several Gentlemen of the Corporation, who had all the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Bridgewater.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.
The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We crave Leave, amongst the earliest of your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, to shew our Detestation and Abhorrence of the unnatural Conspiracy against your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government, and our excellent Constitution in Church and State.

And we most unspeakably congratulate the Success of your Majesty's wife and watchful Care, which hath penetrated into the Designs and discovered the Strength of your Enemies so effectually, as to raise our Hopes that they will not dare to Attempt what they have presum'd to Project.

We also beg Leave to assure your Majesty, as we have in the most solemn Manner sworn Allegiance to your most sacred Majesty, and abjur'd a Popish Pretender, we will ever preserve and keep those Oaths most sacred and inviolable, and will to the utmost of our Power maintain and defend your Majesty's just and legal Title to the Crown of this Realm against all Pretenders whatsoever.

And will use our most vigorous Endeavours to suppress all Riots and Tumults, and to discountenance and stop the vile Reflections and spiteful Insinuations of those who pretend to secure the Religion and Liberty of a Protestant Nation, by introducing the Tyranny of a Popish Government.

And now (dread Sir) we conclude with our sincerest Wishes that all Attempts against your Royal Person and Government may end in the former Establishment of your Throne, and that the Crown may long flourish on your sacred Head, and afterwards be transmitted to your Royal Progeny even to the latest Posteriority, which is the most hearty and fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects of this ancient Corporation.

In Testimony whereof we have caused our Common Seal to be affixed the 21st Day of May 1722, and in the Eighth Year of your Majesty's happy Reign over us.

London, May 30.

Yesterday arrived the Mails from Holland and Flanders.

Naples, May 12. On the 9th instant, being the Octave of the Festival of St. Januarius, the usual Miracle of the Liquefaction of that Saint's Blood, was beheld with great Satisfaction by the Credulous. Six Tartans are sailed for Orbitello laden with warlike Ammunition and Stores; and 'tis said that either General Caraffa, or General St. Emo, will be appointed to command the Imperial Forces garrisoned in the Places on the Tuscan Coast.

Genua, May 9. Letters from Milan say, that on Sunday the 3d instant, being the Feast of the Exaltation of the Cross, the annual Procession of that Day was made with great Solemnity; that the Cardinal-Archbishop carried one of the Nails of the Crucifixion of our Saviour which is kept in the Metropolitan Church of that City; and that in the Afternoon the Count Colleodio and the Countess went thither to pay their Devotions on that Occasion. Those Letters add, that the King of Sardinia has given Orders to have his Troops recruited and to be ready to march as Occasion shall require, in case of a Rupture in Italy.

Rome, May 16. Cardinal Althan received on the 9th instant an Express from Vienna, with the Confirmation of his Appointment to the Viceroyalty of Naples, and that he is to be succeeded by Cardinal de Cienfuegos in the Management of the German Affairs at this Court. The Court of Spain has sent large Remittances to Cardinal Belluga, with Order to continue here; upon which, his Eminency has hired a Palace and increased the Number of his Domesticks. The Motion of the Imperial Troops in Italy, the Arrival of many German Officers, and the Landing of Spanish Forces with warlike Stores and Provisions at Porto Longone, redouble the uneasy Apprehensions of an approaching War; and in order to provide for military Expences, the Empereur has retrenched, for this Year, half the Pensions assigned upon the Kingdom of Naples, and has caused but a third of the Revenue to be paid belonging to Persons absent from thence. A Portuguese Gentleman belonging to Cardinal Pereira's Retinue, was taken four Days ago just as he was scaling the Walls of a Nunnery by the Help of a broken Ladder, and himself disguised like a Sailor: He was committed to Prison, but released in two Days afterwards: An Attempt of this Nature would have been severely punished at any other Time; but 'tis said the Pope was willing by this Act of Clemency to soften in some measure his late strenuous Refusal of granting to Sig. Bichi a Cardinal's Cap, & pressing Instances of the King of Portugal. Genl Alberoni has returned to the Proprietors, in the Palace which he lately hired at Campo-Martio, notwithstanding the Cost he has been at to accommodate it finely to his own Use; this Circumstance occasions a Suspicion that his Affair is not near its Conclusion.

Paris, June 3. The Comtat, and the Principality of Orange. M. Herault a Surgeon in his Letter of the 20th of May, writes, that the Distemper was pretty violent in Orange, that on the 16th instant died and six fell sick; but since, there had been but three dead and two sick. The Symptoms were so malignant, that it was feared the Distemper would rage with great Violence; for some of the sick had 15 or 20 Tumours or Sores upon them, and when they died their Bodies had Black or Purple Spots. M. de Launay writes the 20th, that the Distemper had not increased at Orange or in its Territory, nor at Bedarides; but that it had not decreased at Avignon. M. d'Orsay in his of the 24th of May advises, that since the Relapse at Orange there had died in the Town and its Territory to the 16th of May 86 Persons, and 23 at Bedarides: Avignon continued in a very bad State. The Marquis de Chabrelin in his of the 26th of May says, Avignon has still some sick though the Number be not great, and but few die. The 16th the sick in the Insinuaries of Orange were in a Way of Recovery.
